Excerpt from A Historical Vindication of the Abrogation of the Plan of Union: By the Presbgterian Church in the State of America This volume aims to vindicate the reform system adopted in the Presbyterian church, May, 1837, from the disingenuous statements and inferences by which its opposers have endeavored, and still strive, to screen themselves from just censure, and to injure the good name of those who stood foremost in the decisive hour, to save the church by dispossessing her adversaries. No true church can exist which has not the uncorrupted word of God for her basis, and the cardinal doctrines of grace for her chief corner stones, her pedestals, her porches, her columns, and her imperishable wall of defence. It cannot be denied, that the palpable perversions of religious truth and moral obligation, the distorted views of man s native powers and responsibilities, which pervade the whole mass of New School speculation and romance, if not speedily checked and effectually remedied must prove the programme to an age of infidelity, and introduce upon the American stage the shocking theological panorama of universal derangement and confusion in the elements of the moral world; as a parallel to which we may point only to the reign of terror and triumph of ungodliness in the French Revolution, at the close of the last century. Considering the excitability and elasticity of the American mind, its love of novelty and the readiness with which it catches at theories most untried and extravagant, this is a fearful idea. Cases of wild fanaticism, sufficient to warrant these unwelcome anticipations, may be gleaned, not only from the history of New School innovations within the last...
