Not illustrated. 1919 Excerpt: .Room and Jig Shop, the Power Plant, and the Wing Assembly and Covering Building. Plant 2 is separated from the main Plant 1 by a private way and consists of a three-story building adjoining a two-story substructure. This building contains 35,000 square feet. At the close of hostilities there were over 1,000 employees at the two plants. A band of thirty pieces had been organized that furnished music at welfare and patriotic meetings. Every convenience was considered by the management to help make the plant attractive to its employees, and the results were gratifying in both the grade of work produced and the absence of labor difficulties within the plant. Y. Experimental Plant--Center Street, Ithaca, N. Y. IN December, 1914, the citizens of Ithaca, New York, were startled by the rumor that a flying machine factory had arrived at their little city. It was even asserted that a flying school had arrived with it, at which young men, certainly not of normal mind and character, were endeavoring to achieve the art of propelling themselves through the air with safety and precision. Rumor...
