He explained that he was very much interested in debating, and had prepared a list of Questions for Debate, suitable to the various grades of the public schools. This list, he thought, would be of service to the teachers and the young people of the State, and he had come to see if it could not be printed at cost, so that he could afford to send it out to the schools at his own expense. At this point I examined him attentively to see if he were in his right mind or merely a millionaire in disguise. He seemed quite rational, however, and showed no symptoms of millions. He was a teacher, unselfishly anxious to help his fellows, and willing to spend some money to do it. His manuscript is just what many people have desired. It fills a long felt want. Therefore, it is sent out in this way (without expense to him) for the teachers of the high school and the upper grammar grades, with the hope that it may be usable and that it may be used. For, look you here. These young people that we are sending out to battle can no longer use the cross-bow or the long spear, nor even the short sword or the rifle. Yet they must fight against wrong and defend the right and take care of themselves and protect those who depend upon them. And their real weapons are just Words....
