Excerpt: . . . 9 deed to generate the process, of reform. Integration into the global community is the way in which this Administration has decided to approach that problem. It comports in the case of China with the views of such respected dissidents as Martin Lee and Bao Tung and Dai Ching and any one of a number on the ground in China who believe that integration into the global community will further the process of internal re-form, such as Dr. Que has indicated similar views in Vietnam. We believe that this is really the best way to approach the problem. Isolation, whether of China or Vietnam, tends to increase repres-sion, tends to decrease the accountability - - Mr. L. I know my time is up, but since you have used the ANTOS world isolationism, I have to respond to that. Those of us who dis-agree with the Administrations policy are not recommending either isolating China or isolating Vietnam, but of using our enormous le-verage to improve the human rights condition. Mr. B. I thank the...
