Terrible Splendor: Three Extraordinary Men, a World Poised for War and the Greatest Tennis Match Ever Played

By Marshall Jon Fisher

Random House USA Inc. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Terrible Splendor: Three Extraordinary Men, a World Poised for War and the Greatest Tennis Match Ever Played, Marshall Jon Fisher, Before Federer versus Nadal, before Borg versus McEnroe, the greatest tennis match ever played pitted the dominant Don Budge against the seductively handsome Baron Gottfried von Cramm. This deciding 1937 Davis Cup match, played on the hallowed grounds of Wimbledon, was a battle of titans: the world's number one tennis player against the number two; America against Germany; democracy against fascism. For five superhuman sets, the duo's brilliant shotmaking kept the Centre Court crowd-and the world-spellbound. But the match's significance extended well beyond the immaculate grass courts of Wimbledon. Against the backdrop of the Great Depression and the brink of World War II, one man played for the pride of his country while the other played for his life. Budge, the humble hard-working American who would soon become the first man to win all four Grand Slam titles in the same year, vied to keep the Davis Cup out of the hands of the Nazi regime. On the other side of the net, the immensely popular and elegant von Cramm...
