So, the important question is to see how we can and should compete, but we also need to make certain that that competition takes place on a level playing field. We need to do more than just talk about difficult issues, such as indigenous innovation schemes, government procurement policies, and protecting intellectual property. We actually need to find meaningful actions between us that make a difference in the leveling of that playing field. In recent days, we have seen positive steps by China to stop the spread of nuclear weapons. And I think all of us appreciate Chinas vote for new sanctions against Iran at the United Nations. Thats an important cooperative effort and an important measure of Chinas role in the world today. I hope that China will now join with us and other members of the Security Council in aggressively implementing these sanctions,...
