Brand New Book  Print on Demand .For as long as Mel can remember, the house down the street has always been known as the fruitcake house , and the current owner seems to be no different. In fact, it s very possible that he s even fruitier and nuttier than any of the others before him. Admittedly, Mel is as curious about the fruitcake s idiosyncrasies as the rest of the town, but does not intend to satisfy that curiosity. However, the best laid plans. A summer thunderstorm and a few recalcitrant Christmas decorations change all of that for Mel who learns the important life lesson that in spite of preconceived notions to the contrary, not all fruitcakes are bad.
