Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Story of Creation In the long ago, in the beginning of hoary time, God, by the power of His Almighty word, created the heavenly bodies and the earth. Gen 1:2. In the second chapter of Genesis in the first and in the fourth verses, the word heaven is in the plural form. I think it must meant the heavenly bodies. Just so in Psalms 33:6: By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth. The word hosts often means an army; or a multitude of beings. Josh. 5:14, 15, The worlds were framed by the word of God. Heb. 11:3. St. Peter says. by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth. 2:3-5. In all these passages the writers must mean the heavenly bodies and the earth. And they say they were created by the word of God. As it is explained in the thirty-third Psalm: 9: He spake and it was done; He commanded and it stood fast. Genesis, first chapter and first verse, calls this beginning. And I think St. John refers to this in the first chapter, first and second verses of his Gospel. I do not think the Lord created all these worlds as on a great platform and then moved them out on their respective tracks; but rather, I believe, He created each one in the part of space it was to occupy in relation to the rest and in the orbit in which it was to move. As afterwards He created those creatures that were peculiar to water in the water;...
