By Thomas Savage

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from A Historical Sketch of Bedford, Being a Discourse Delivered Sabbath Afternoon, July 4th, 1841, in the Presbyterian Meeting House For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded oar fathers, that they should make them known to their children. That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born, who should arise and declare them to their children. That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments. It is useful at certain periods, to recal to remembrance the former times; to review the early history of States, Towns and Communities and watch the various steps in their progress from infancy to manhood. Such recollections of the past, have a good moral influence on the generations present and to come. We learn in some degree, to appreciate the hardships of those who were as (he pioneers of society and who first made the sound of the axe to be heard in the forest. We...
