As to the membership of the club, it is difficult to make an accurate statement at this time, owing to the fact that affairs are still in a somewhat formative condition. There are, within a radius of seventy-five miles of Chicago, two hundred and ten Pi Beta Phis, whose names and addresses are known to the club, all of whom are, according to the constitution, eligible to membership. For the sake of having, in permanent form, these names and addresses, which have been gathered at different times at the expense of considerable time and effort, they have all been included in a directory of the club published by the executive committee, the names of those who have expressed their willingness to join, about one hundred in all, being marked with an asterisk. Of the two hundred and ten, some have stated...
