Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of the Second Pan American Commercial Conference: Held in the Building of the Pan American Union, Washington, D. C. June 2-6, 1919 America and there was the greatest frankness and freedom of discussion. The Second Pan American Commercial Conference was Pan American All American in every respect. As convincing evidence of the practical value of the Conference, there are given below extracts from the final summary of its work read by the Director General just before adjournment sine die: If the work and results of the Conference can be unofficially summarized in the form of expressing the sentiments of the majority of those in attendance, as judged by their addresses and comments, the following conclusions should be cited: 1. The early establishment of ample freight, mail, and passenger steamship facilities between the principal ports of the Atlantic, Gulf, and Pacific ports of the United States and the corresponding ports of Latin America. 2. Thorough reciprocity and mutual cooperation in trading methods and regulations, in business ethics, and in general treatment of commercial relations, including export and import combinations, and other governmental aids to commerce. 3. The meeting by the financial and business interests of the United States of the financial needs of Latin American Governments and private undertakings. 4. Safeguarding of patents, trademarks, and copyrights of each country in all the other twenty countries through the present International Bureau at Havana and the early opening of one in Rio de Janeiro. 5. Making the parcel post beneficial alike to the exporters of the United States and the consumers of Latin America through the removal of unnecessary restrictions and regulations. 6. Improvement in the administration...
