By Unknown Author

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Activities of the Committee on Public Information, Vol. 18 My Dear Mr. Creel: I have just finished reading the report of the Committee on Public Information which you were kind enough to bring me last week, and I want to say how much it has gratified me and how entirely the work being done by the committee meets with my approval. I have kept in touch with that work, piece by piece, as you know, in our several interviews, but had not realized its magnitude when assembled in a single statement. I feel confident that as the work of the committee progresses it will more and more win the public approval and confidence. My Dear Mr. President: As will be seen by the accompanying report, the Committee on Public Information has grown to be a world organization. Not only does it touch every part of the great machinery that coordinates the forces of America for victory, but it carries the meanings and purposes of America to all peoples, making the fight for public opinion...
